PITech Solutions Becomes SAS[®] Reseller

PITech Solutions (www.pitechsol.com), a leading Enterprise Intelligence solutions provider, and SAS, the leader in business intelligence and analytical software and services, today announce PITech's selection as a SAS Alliance Partner

CARY, NC – PITech Solutions today announced its participation in the SAS Alliance Channel program, which will help bring SAS business intelligence software to small-to-medium and mid-market businesses (SMB) in North Carolina. PITech Solutions is a technology services company based in Cary, NC focused on providing data warehousing, business intelligence and analytic solutions to its customers. PITech focuses on the Healthcare, Financial Services, Manufacturing and Government vertical industry segments.

“We partner with our customers to provide them solutions that deliver immediate and continual business value. We strive to create a competitive advantage for our customers through strategic use of technology,” explains Senthil Kumar, Vice President at PITech Solutions. “The synergy between our core competency, focus market segments and SAS products create an excellent opportunity for both companies. As a SAS Alliance partner, we will be able to implement proven, reliable SAS products in the area of data management, business intelligence and analytics to achieve the objective.”

As a SAS reseller, PITech Solutions will promote and sell the SAS Enterprise Intelligence Platform, which includes data integration, business intelligence and analytics. SAS and PITech will work together to maintain high level of competency in SAS Technologies from pre-sales to implementation and beyond to ensure ideal customer experience. In addition, the two companies will engage in targeted marketing activities to drive greater awareness of SAS software in the PITech's core markets.

“By partnering with companies like PITech Solutions who share our business vision, SAS maintains a highly-skilled and happily loyal Alliance Channel,” states Karl Schlatzer, Marketing Director for SAS Alliance and Product Marketing. “Together, we can leverage opportunities to drive business intelligence and advanced analytics into the small-to-medium business space.”
